There is no map for this walk.

From Lyndhurst drive west on the A35 for 4km. (2.5 miles). Turn right into Bolderwood Arboretum Ornamental Drive and Knightwood Oak car park is a little way up on the left. It is a very easy, pleasant woodland walk on a good gravel or firm grass/gravel surface.

FACILITIES .

Car park; 1 blue badge parking space.

Information boards.

Seats; Several bench seats along the walk

Picnic tables; 2

LENGTH.                      0.6km (0.4 miles) in total.

OBSTACLES.                  Chicanes at road crossing points. Easy to navigate.

MARKED TRAIL TO THE OAK TREE. Difficulty level 1

SID says; From the car park the Trail takes you back across the road. Follow the Trail to the Tree. The Trail leads all around the ancient Knightwood Oak, the largest Oak tree in the New Forest. Several good information boards are positioned around the Tree. This is a very easy walk with no significant slopes.

You can download the Knightwood Oak podcast for your MP3 player from the Forestry Commission website below.

SID says; You may like to combine this walk with a visit to the deer viewing platform at Bolderwood car park which is near the other end of the Bolderwood Arboretum Ornamental Drive.
